Body found ear truck

RCMP wouldn't confirm whether body found in Banff National Park was that of Jordan Darda Darda, 20, has been missing for 11 days after he went camping an Airdrie family after searchers found a body near a missing man's truck in Banff National Park.

Searchers found a body just two kilometres from where University of Alberta student Jordan Darda parked his truck near the Pinto Lake trailhead, according to Mark Ledwidge, a Parks Canada spokesman.

Darda's cousin Shaun Shepansky has been updating information to hundreds of members of the "Where is Jordan Darda" Facebook page but said Thursday his family "would need time to process the shocking news."

Well-wishers spent the day leaving messages of hope and prayers for Darda and his family.

Const. Francine Hennelly said more than 30 people, two dog teams and a helicopter participated in the search for Darda in the rugged area while rain came down and temperatures plunged to 5 C during the day.
"The body has not been identified and the cause of the death is unknown. At this time there is no indication of foul play," she said.

Officials say there was no note found at the young man's truck.

Additional charges laid against two men

Police have laid additional charges against two men originally arrested for a carjacking earlier this month.

The two suspects now also face charges in connection with bank robberies and shoplifting.

Police allege Andrew Lucy, 28, and Terry Plaku, 46, approached a woman at the Brentwood LRT parking lot and threatened her with a wrench and stole her vehicle. Police located the vehicle a short time later and arrested the men at the scene. Lucy is facing two counts of robbery in relation to two bank holdups, and Plaku is facing shoplifting charges.

Mayoral candidate Ald. Bob Hawkesworth hosted Calgary's first telephone town hall meeting Thursday.

Hawkesworth invited 80,000 Calgarians to call in for a live conversation to discuss many of the election issues.

Those who called in for the hour-long discussion could pose questions to Hawkesworth about his platform.

Goyette gets her woman

• 'To me this is a professional setup because you are on the ice every day, the team trains together and there's fitness testing': Wickenheiser

Danielle Goyette didn't even wait until the Winter Olympics were over before she started recruiting Hayley Wickenheiser to play for her at the University of Calgary.

Goyette has coached the Calgary women's team for two seasons since retiring from the women's national team, where she was teammates with Wickenheiser for a decade.

Before the women's hockey gold-medal game in Vancouver, Goyette began lobbying Wickenheiser's partner Tomas Pacina, and then her parents Tom and Marilyn in the athletes' friend and family lounge. She got them on board before putting the idea to Wickenheiser herself.

The campaign paid off for the Dinos, who announced Thursday that the all-time leading scorer on the Canadian women's team will play for the university this season. At 32, Wickenheiser will be almost a decade older than her Dino teammates. She has over a year remaining on her kinesiology degree and hopes to one day go to medical school. She's never played university hockey before, so she has five years of eligibility in the CIS.

Wickenheiser will make her debut with the Dinos in a two-game series Oct. 8-9 in Regina.

Impressive CV

- Wickenheiser is the captain of the women's national team, and its all-time leading scorer.
- She has twice played in men's professional leagues in Europe.
- She has three Olympic gold medals, with a total of 16 goals and 30 assists in 21 games over the course of four Olympic tournaments.

Nomination deadline approaching

derman and school board trustees will soon be filing their papers at city hall as nomination day fast approaches.

Between 9 a.m. and noon on Monday, council hopefuls will hand their papers to the election's returning officer Barbara Clifford.

"They have to obtain signatures from electors of the area in which they're running," said Clifford, adding mayoral and aldermanic candidates have to collect 100 signatures while trustee applicants must collect 25 signatures.

Mayoral contenders pay a $500 fee, while all other candidates submit a $100 deposit. Candidates then have 24 hours to withdraw.

History

- Mayoral hopeful Greg Berdette has already dropped out of the race.
- Barbara Clifford said the most candidates she's seen submit their papers was in 1993, when 23 Calgarians ran for alderman of Ward 5
- during a byelection. In 1989, Clifford said 19 people submitted papers to become mayor.

Clifford said she wasn't willing to guess how many would file this year.

"I've seen too many people come in and give press conferences and all sorts of things and then never file their papers. To me, there's nothing until Monday," she said.

Police seek help solving violent robberv

Police are hoping the public will assist them in finding four men responsible for a home invasion last month in the city's northwest that saw a Calgary man lose his ear.

On Aug. 13, four men wearing ATCO Gas clothing forced their way into a home and physically assaulted the victim and left with some property, according to Det. Brad Moore.

"We believe one of the offender's names may possibly be Christian," Moore said, adding it doesn't appear the men were actually ATCO employees.

"This was a targeted attack."

Police believe two of the men used the victim's credit card at 7-Eleven stores in the city and hope photos of two suspects help generate some tips to authorities.

There have been 54 home invasions in the city in 2010.

Panel puts forth 15 ideas for health

1,300 people across the province were heard from 1,500 web-based surveys were completed • Health Minister Zwozdesky will review the findings

A proposed overhaul of Alberta's health-care legisla-tion could include a charter and an advocate to enforce it.

Legislature member Fred Horne, who led the team that listened to more than 1,000 Albertans in workshops earlier this year, says the charter would recognize the patient as the priority. Horne said that may seem self-evident, but it hasn't always been the case.

"I'll be very honest with you, in some communities the answer (on who the priority was) was, 'Every-body but me,'" Horne said Thursday.

He said the advocate, who would report to the health minister, would be needed to ensure the charter had some teeth.

ASK NOT WHAT POLITICS CAN DO FOR YOU...

Opinion

DJ KELLY THE SCRUTINEER,

WITH ANALYSIS OF CIVIC ISSUES LEADING UP TO THE ELECTION

There's a certain level of narcissism needed to enter politics.

o stand up in front of all of us and say, "I know what is best for you" — well, that takes a lot of confidence.

Yet every politician — or wannabe politician — will tell you they take that stand for no reason other than they want to help make Calgary a better place for all Calgarians.

Well, the time has arrived. It's time to find out who really is in it for Calgarians and who's just in it for themselves.

Only one person will become our next mayor, but 14 people will become our next aldermen. It takes eight votes to get anything done at city hall, so those 14 aldermen are equally as important as the mayor, who only has one vote at council.

With 17 candidates vying for the centre chair, it's a fair guess that if you are not polling in the top third, say, by this point in the race, the odds of a victory are almost nil.

"Each alderman has exactly the same power as the mayor — it's just not as prestigious. You don't get invited to as many events or asked to speak at as many galas. But you do get to shape policy and make vital decisions."

So if you are not Ric McIver, Barb Higgins, Naheed Nenshi, Bob Hawkesworth or Kent Hehr, what do you do? Do you keep running for mayor because you believe you're the right person for the job? Do you let your ego take over?

Or do you take the time to realize that if you really do have good ideas, and you and your supporters really do think you could make a difference, it might be time to find another way: Run for alderman.

Each alderman has exactly the same power as the mayor — it's just not as prestigious. You don't get invited to as many events or asked to speak at as many galas. But you do get to shape policy and make vital decisions in exactly the same way the mayor does.

If candidates really do have Calgary's best interests at heart, and not their own, I'd like to see how many of them can swallow their pride and do what's best for the city for which they claim to care so deeply.

If candidates like Wayne Stewart and Alnoor Kassam — or even Craig Burrows, Jon Lord or Joe Connelly, who have all been aldermen before — have such great ideas, why not run for alderman to ensure they get implemented?

Nomination papers need to be submitted by Monday. I know it sounds harsh, but by noon we'll have a good idea of who's got Calgary's best interests at heart, and who's just in it for themselves.

The Bow River connection

"We glide over land of water" was the first phrase artist Cecile Belmont chose on Thursday to depict the ordinary Calgarian's connection with the Bow River at Olympic Plaza. "It was intriguing — there was a concept of expressing an idea in a group that spoke to me," said Melissa Wigness, a Letter Performance participant. "I wanted to say something but I wasn't ready to say it with my own voice."

Deformities

Local anglers say the number of deformed catches is growing.

- In 2007, Environment Canada completed work showing high levels of deformities in fish embryos exposed to oilsands.
- The Alberta government monitors the area's environment, largely through information provided by industry.
- But scientists say Alberta's program lacks transparency and credibility.

Something's fishy in northern Alberta

The fish are hard to look at. One whitefish has a golf-ball-sized tumour on its side. Another is simply missing part of its spine, its tail growing from a stumpy rear end.

Others are covered with lesions and still others are bent and crooked from deformed vertebrae.

All were taken from Lake Athabasca, downstream from the oilsands in northern Alberta. All are reasons, say a group of scientists and aboriginals, for the government to conduct an independent study on what's happening to the Athabasca River and its watershed after decades of industry expansion.

dustry expansion.

"A lot of people are afraid to eat fish from the lake," said Robert Grandjambe of Fort Chipewyan, which is also downstream from the oilsands. "It's time we had a proper monitoring study done."

Benedict XVI's visit to Britain marred by disgust over sex abuseOnly 10% of Britons are Catholic Pope Benedict XVI waded into the hostile atmosphere of highly secular Britain on Thursday, admitting that the Catholic Church had not acted decisively or quickly enough to remove priests who molested children, in his strongest comments on the worldwide sex abuse crisis.

In a visit unprecedented for its opposition, Benedict warned against "aggressive forms" of secularism. The Pope recalled how Britain had stood against "Nazi tyranny that wished to eradicate God from society."

The trip is the first state visit by a pope to the U.K., and his meeting with Queen Elizabeth II was significant because of the historic divide between the officially Protestant nation and the Catholic Church.

Only 65,000 of the faithful had tickets to an open air Mass at Bellahouston Park in Glasgow, compared to the 100,000 previously expected. The British media has been particularly un-welcoming to the pope's visit, noting its $18.7-million security cost to taxpayers at a time of austerity measures and job losses.

Many in Britain are also opposed to Benedict's hard line against homosexuality, abortion and using condoms to prevent the spread of AIDS. Protests are planned and "Pope Nope" T-shirts have been spotted around London. Still, a crowd of 125,000 in Edinburgh welcomed him as his Popemobile paraded through the streets, with cheers on Princes Street heard a mile away.

Doctor shot after breaking bad news

Gunman distraught about ill mother

A man who became distraught as he was being briefed on his mother's condition at Johns Hopkins Hospital pulled a gun and shot the doctor Thursday.

Then he killed his mother and himself in her room at the world-famous medical centre in Baltimore.

The 50-year-old man holed up inside his mother's room for two hours during a standoff with authorities.

Officers found him dead on the floor and his mother dead in her bed.

Man faces 30 years for sex with underage girls

A Philadelphia man has pleaded guilty to sex charges stemming from trips to Egypt to have sex with three underage girls. Two of the girls became pregnant as part of what prosecutors called marriages undertaken with the consent of the girls' families.

Omar Rashaad Bey, 33, pleaded guilty in Philadelphia to three counts of engaging in illicit sexual contact in foreign places.

He is to be sentenced in January and faces 30 years in prison on each count.

Related charges of travelling for the purpose of engaging in illicit sexual conduct were dropped. His lawyer, Fortunato

Perri Jr., said Bey had the permission of the girls' families to engage them in relationships.

The families acquiesced to these Islamic marriages," he said.

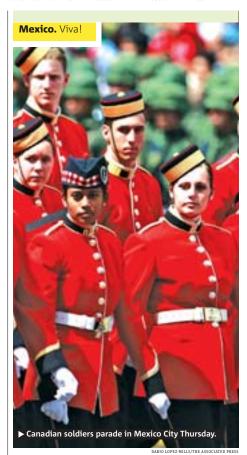

A news report said Bey told U.S. District Judge Jan DuBois he was currently unmarried and had 12 children ranging in age from six months to 15 vears.

The man was initially identified as Warren Davis. but police later said that was an alias. His real name was Paul Warren Pardus.

The doctor, who was not identified, was wounded in the abdomen. But he was expected THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gang rape at party ends up on Facebook

♠ Girl, 16, was given date rape drug, police believe
♠ She was left with injuries after 'violent' assault

A 16-year-old girl was drugged and raped repeatedly by partygoers at a weekend rave near Vancouver.

Onlookers snapped photos that have since found their way onto Facebook, the RCMP said Thursday.

The attack happened at a rave last Friday night on a rural property near Pitt Meadows, east of Vancouver

Police believe the girl was given a substance commonly know as the date-rape drug.

"It's essentially one male having intercourse and when he's done, another one participates — that's a gang rape," said

"It's a sexual assault. It's an unwanted assault taking advantage of someone who is under the influence of this drug"

INSP. DERREN LENCH.

Insp. Derren Lench.

Lench said the girl was drugged and, while she wasn't unconscious at the time, she was incapable of consenting as several people had intercourse with her.

He described the assault as "violent" and said the girl was left with undisclosed injuries.

There had been no arrests connected to the rape, but Lench said attackers are believed to include minors and young adults

As for the photos, a 16year-old boy was arrested and later released as prosecutors consider charges of producing and distributing child pornography child pornography.

Lench said the RCMP have been contacting Facebook users who have posted them and demanded they be removed and deleted.

Many have complied, he said, but some have so far refused.

MINUTES WITH: DAM MILLER

Adam Miller is the artistic director of Cirque du soleil's Kooza, which opened in Calgary Thursday and runs until Oct. 24. Miller is originally from Providence, R.I., and has been involved in multiple Cirque du soleil shows. He is a trained ballet dancer and has performed with The Royal Ballet as well as American Ballet Theatre. When it comes to Kooza, Miller looks after 53 artists.

How long have you been with Cirque?

For just over two years now.

How did you get involved? I was teaching and running a dance company in Hartford, Conn., and I taught a class for dancers in Delirium (a live musical event put on by Cirque du soleil.) After which, I sent my CV. Eighteen months later, I was hired as an artistic director for the (Cirque du soleil) show Saltimbanco. I joined Kooza in January of How long will you be on the road with Kooza?

As long as they'll let me, but as of now, we are touring in Japan starting in January for 18 months

What's it like being on the road for that long?

It's fun, but not always easy, and there is work involved. But you adjust; the road is your home and when you're on vacation, you go home. I meet great people and see some pretty great things. And I get to play on a lot of great golf courses!

Many of the stunts performed in Kooza look pretty dangerous. Have you ever experienced any scary moments during a perform

Well, as a director and observer, some things always scare me. But the artists are so skilled and really know what they are doing. In addition, Cirque goes above and beyond the normal safety needs to ensure that our artists are as safe as possible. Even when I am scared, everyone is so skilled they react beautifully to every situation.

Tell me about your first performance of Kooza in Calgary. It was fantastic to see people react to the most exciting show there is. Gasps, laughs, whoops and cheers. I love sharing this experience with an audience for the first time. It was cold and rainy outside, but inside was nothing but warmth and fun. A great night!

Understand your mind

Worth mentioning

New research has uncovered a part of the brain that is larger in people who seem particularly introspective

Some people know their minds better than others, and research being reported Friday is a step at understanding the biology behind that important part of human conscious-

It is work necessary for one day tackling brain injuries or diseases that rob people of key aspects of self-reflection — such as schizophrenia patients who are not aware they are ill and thus do not take their medication.

By learning the neurologic basis of selfawareness, "might we be able to come up with potential strategies to intervene in these cases and improve people's introspective ability?" asks Stephen Fleming of University College London, lead author of the new research published in the journal Science.

Introspection is basically thinking about your thinking, a way to judge your own thoughts and actions - and inherently difficult to study. The British research team devised a way to measure introspective ability by comparing people's confi-dence in a decision they made with the accuracy of that decision.

◆ Andy Fickman convinced starlet to head to Los Angeles ◆ Bell definitely does not fit the stereotype of a needy and demanding Hollywood type

Bell battles high school nightmares

"High school is a pit of despair," Kristen Bell declares. "It's a swirling tornado of insecurities and there's really nothing good about it."

Truer words have never been spoken. But Bell isn't bemoaning her teenage years in Michigan. She's actually talking about the setting of her new film, You Again. Directed by Bell's longtime friend and collaborator, Andy Fickman, the comedy follows a successful woman (Bell) who realizes her brother is going to marry the girl who mercilessly bullied her throughout high school (Odette Yustman), so she sets out to expose the fiancée's dastardly true colours.

With a supporting cast that includes Sigourney Weaver, Jamie Lee Curtis and newly minted national treasure Betty White, Bell was in co-star heaven while revisiting the darkest period of most people's lives.

"(In high school) you're on this learning curve of who you are and who you want to be, and you're comparing yourself to everyone around you and there's no sense to it," she says. "Everyone just wants to be loved and no one feels loved enough in high school."

Of course, the actress could just as easily be describing Hollywood. "Touché," she smirks, hoisting one well-arched eyebrow and nodding her head in agreement. "Totally."

Yet unlike many young actors on a desperate quest for attention and accolades, Bell had to be convinced to move to Hollywood, and it was You Again director Fickman who persuaded her.

The pair met 10 years ago during a production of Reefer Madness. Not long after the show closed, Bell recalls, "Andy said 'I think you need to move to L.A.,' and I said, 'You're drunk.'" After much insistence and his promise to "be your family there," Bell packed her bags and came out West.

"I have a best friendship and a weird older brother relationship with Andy, and it's a relationship I'll take to my grave," she says. "I love him so much. I do projects with him all the time, they just don't warrant this kind of press. We've done plays together in black box theaters that seat 17 people and it's because we like working together."

Scene in brief

Once again, Comedy Central has gone too far and lined up too many stars. Stephen Colbert, Larry David, Tina Fey, Ricky Ger-vais and Sarah Silverman are just a few of the names expected for this year's Night Of Too Many Stars: An Overbooked Concert For Autism Education, the network said Thursday. Jon Stewart will host the two-hour broadcast. which airs Oct. 21. In past years, nearly $7 million was raised, Comedy Central said. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

rom-com

Alpha and Omega

Genre: Animation Directors: Anthony Bell, Ben Gluck

These days, average animation films — even those targeted specifically at children — pack enough CGI wizardry and writing smarts to keep the bar high for this everevolving genre.

So it's surprising that Alpha and Omega's tale of two wolves runs in the opposite direction — a throwback to the stylistic simplicity of old-school Disney features minus the charm and heart.

This painstakingly dull movie marks out familiar animal territory: Kate (voiced by Hayden Panettiere) is a young, alpha she-wolf, groomed to be a hunter and provider for her pack. Humphrey (Justin Long) belongs to the other side of the social order — an omega who spends his day goofing around with his equally inept mates and dreams about "howling at the moon" with Kate.

Just before Kate is about to be paired off with an alpha male from a rival pack in order to keep the peace within Jasper National Park's wolf community, she and Humphrey are shipped off across the border by meddling park rangers to repopulate the forests of Idaho. Their journey back home propels the film's action, leading to a predictable rom-com-type conclusion.

It's hard to imagine kids finding any excitement in this laughsfree exercise with no reason to exist in 3-D (yet, it does). One can only sympathize with those parents who have to sit through the movie and with late Hollywood icon Dennis Hopper — this happens to be his final finished film

Stars: Emma Stone, Thomas
Haden Church, Patricia Clarkson

A surprisingly hilarious comedy about a good girl (Emma Stone) willfully accepting a less than ladylike reputation at her school to help her fellow rejects and create some semblance of a social life. The script is filled with loving nods to the '80s teen flicks of John Hughes and The Scarlet Letter, and it's a mini-miracle that the resulting film doesn't crumble under the invited comparisons. All credit goes to a playful and talented cast as well as a team of filmmakers who somehow found life left in the high school comedy. OPHIL BROWN

TIFF'S BEST SUCCESS STORIES

During the Toronto International Film Festival you'll see stars sipping lattes at the Starbucks in Yorkville and dolled-up on the red carpet at Roy Thompson Hall, but my favourite way to see them is up on the big screen. Celebrity gazing is a pleasant enough festival diversion, but the star attraction is the films.

ver the last 35 years the festival has run over 10,000 movies through their projectors. Obviously not all have gone on to win awards and break office records, but the festival has a surprisingly good track record at picking and showcasing hits. Chariots of Fire, The Big Chill and The Princess Bride all took home the fest's People's Choice Award and recent Oscar winners from TIFF include four award winner No Country for Old Men and Capote, which earned a Best Actor Oscar for its star Phillip Seymour Hoffman.

This year as the Oscar buzz is already building for TIFF treats Black Swan (director Darren Aronofsky's follow-up to The Wrestler), Paul Giamatti's performance in Barney's Version and the Bruce Springsteen documentary The Promise: The Making of Darkness on the Edge of Town, I thought I'd look back at movies that used Toronto as a springboard for later success.

SLUMDOG MILLIONAIRE

Although not technically a TIFF premiere—it was first shown at the Telluride Film Festival—director Danny Boyle credits the Toronto festival audience's reaction to the film with saving it from a terrible fate—going direct to DVD.

RAY

Before Ray premiered at the 2004 TIFF Jamie Foxx was best known as a comedian whose credits included dressing in drag as the ugliest woman in the world, Wanda Wayne, on In Living Color who occasionally dabbled in serious films like Oliver Stone's Any Given Sunday. After TIFF he was a serious actor, on the path to winning a Best Actor Academy Award.

ROGER & ME

At the start of the festival 21 years ago Michael Moore was an unknown documentary filmmaker hawking a self-financed film about the economic impact GM CEO Roger Smith's decision to close down several auto plants in Flint, Mich. By the festival's end Moore was a media celebrity with a People's Choice Award and a film that would go on to win ten other major awards — although no Oscar. Moore would have to wait until Bowling for Columbine — which also played at TIFF — won the 2003 statue for Best Documentary.

SOLVE ALL PROBLEMS OF LIFE

Album blazes its own trail

Danny Michel's eighth album was recorded in Belize, Costa Rica and Holland • Recorded independently, it escapes tradition and evades stagnancy

"This is the first record of mine I enjoy listening to.' admits singer/songwriter Danny Michel in regards to his latest independently-released effort Sunset Sea.

"I think you'd be hardpressed to find any musician that likes their old albums, though. If you were content with them, you wouldn't be moving forward. I like parts of them but writing music should be a constant learning curve.

With some seven predecessors as well as accolades including Juno nomina-tions and boasting Texas rocker Alejandro Escovedo as a dedicated fan, the Kitchener-Waterloo native hasn't exactly been issuing faltering material over the past decade-plus. However, when it comes to Sunset Sea-available at shows www.danand via nymichel.com- the affable Michel notes he has finally shed the confines of speculation and worry on a creative level.

Surprisingly, the results on Sunset Sea showcase Michel eschewing vivaciousness and spectrum. proponents after the fact.

was really nervous about it to be honest. I wasn't sure if people would appreciate it or point and laugh, whisper-

Garnering nothing less than abounding critical and fan praise, Michel need not have worried. Sunset Sea is quickly becoming his most revered work, prompting gratitude that pundits have let their 'adventurous spirit follow along" with/embrace this foray outside the confines of his well-trodden folk-inspired territory.

ing 'Did you hear what he did,' to each other behind my back."

To that extent, Michel reveals how the experience of creating Sunset Sea was a self-discovering journey both musically and lyrically. Recording in such diverse locales as Belize, Costa Rica and Holland with guests including longcolleague Harmer, it is the direct result of that aforemen-tioned desire to evade stagnancy.

"I've gotten pretty sick of rock and singer/song-writer music," he declares. "I include myself in that...I find it to be sort of the same and whiny. I wanted to write some positive songs that have some greater message than, 'I'm sad 'cause this girl doesn't like me.' Sunset Sea turns

MORE ALBUMS HITTING SHELVES THIS FALL

he summer was a little light for new rock releases. The fall is a different matter.

Jimmy Eat World/Invented (Sept 21):

Phoenix outfit releases their seventh album using the producer that helped shaped their early sound.

Maroon 5/Hands All Over (Sept 21):

Produced by the former Mr. Shania Twain — Robert "Mutt" Lang (a fan of the band). The band has dropped hints that this may be their second-to-last album.

Santana/Guitar Heaven (Sept 28) The Greatest Guitar Classics of All Time (Sept

Carlos decides he can improve upon (or reimagine) rock standards from everyone from Van Halen to Iimi Hendrix to Jimi Hendrix. Vocal help comes from Chris Cornell (Soundgarden), Scott Weiland (Stone Temple Pilots) and others.

Neil Young/Le Noise (Sept 28):

This one is coming on CD, vinyl, via an iTunes download, Blu-Ray and as both an iPhone and iPad ann app.

Producer Daniel Lanois promises that "there's nothing else out there like it."

The Doobie Brothers/World Gone Crazy (Sept 28):

It's back to the Tom Johnson-fronted Doobies and producer Ted Templeman, the guy behind the band's big early hits. Deluxe edition features a DVD with a retrospective of the band's 40-year career

Oh, and Willie Nelson shows up.

Phil Collins/Going Back

(Sept 28):
With the Genesis reunion, work on sound-tracks and health issues (including one that precluded him from playing drums), Phil's first solo album in eight years features covers of his favourite Motown and soul songs.

Soundgarden/Telephantas m (Sept 28):

Resurrected after 13 years on ice, SG reintroduces themselves to a new generation with a retrospective collection.

Bedouin Soundclash/Light on the Horizon (Sept 28):

After a hiatus necessitated by touring burnout, a new drummer should inject new life into Kingston's best known altska/alt-reggae band.

Ben Folds and Nick Hornby (Sept 28):

Piano dude supplies the music. High Fidelity/ About a Boy/Juliet, Naked author supplies the lyrics. This could be interesting.

Finger 11/Life Returns Electric (Oct 05):

Them vs. You vs. Me will be a tough act to follow, but the first single, Living in a Dream, has already reached No. 1 on the Canadian rock music charts

Kings of Leon/Come Around Sundown (Oct 19):

Has the requisite fivesyllable album title. Some of these songs have already been road-tested.

U2/Songs of Ascent (Who knows?):

They have to get something out there to counteract the apathetic reception of No Line on the Horizon.

But when?

Lohan getting back to her partying ways

Friends share their concern

Friends are already starting to worry about Lindsay Lohan slipping back into her old partying lifestyle after the troubled actress was spotted pulling an allnighter at New York nightclub the Boom Boom Room, according to Us Weekly.

"It's the same old cycle of lying and denials," a source says.

"She's telling everyone she didn't go out. We're like, 'Lindsay, people saw you there!" Lohan reportedly hit the club less than three weeks after leaving rehab.

Everything that she went through seems not to have changed her a bit."

Affleck having woman troubles

Ben Affleck insists that he loves his family, but sometimes it's hard being the low man on the totem

"I just know what it's like to be a serf that just does things," Affleck tells Ellen DeGeneres about life with Jennifer Garner and their two young daughters.

"I take orders from people that cannot speak. And yet still they are higher up on the food chain than I am.'

And being the only man in the equation isn't easy, either.

"I have three women in the house," Affleck says.

"I get to be wrong three times a day." • METRO

Jackson family suing AEG

EVERYONE IS AT FAULT FOR MICHAEL'S DEATH BUT NOT MJ HIMSELF Michael Jackson's family is suing concert promoter AEG for allegedly forcing the singer into a grueling rehearsal schedule that led to his death, according to People magazine.

The lawsuit, filed this week in Los Angeles, alleges that Jackson was "shivering and disoriented" at his final rehearsal.

"AEG had legal duties to Michael Jackson to treat him safely and to not put him in harm's way," the lawsuit states.
"But AEG, despite its knowledge of Michael Jackson's physical condition, breached those duties by putting its desire for massive profits from the tour over the health and safety of Michael Jackson.

Food fit for the stars

Hungry Hollywood celebrities turn to the Elmore sisters for practical, nutritious meals

Jewels and Jill Elmore know what John Travolta has in his fridge, the food Arnold Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver are serving dinner guests and that Jennifer Aniston is high on energy-giving nutritious

The two sisters are personal chefs to many of Hollywood's celebrities, often travelling with them or preparing the daily menus for their families at home.

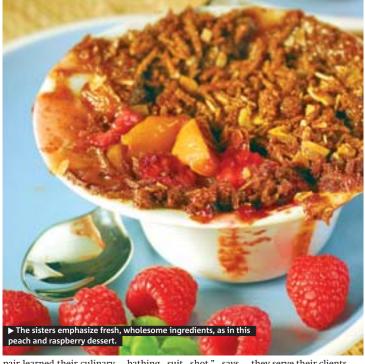

Although the pair didn't have formal culinary train-"we attended a lot of cooking and nutrition classes before joining a catering company," 43-year-old Jewels. savs

But as word spread about the sisters' abundant talent for food shopping and preparing delicious meals, they decided to start their own business.

"So we are employed by one client at a time to work their home on a fulltime basis," says Jill, 40.

Raised in California in a large and closely knit Mexican-American family, the

And what makes them sought after is their emphasis on healthy eating. This is particularly important to the celebrity clientele they have amassed.

"Sometimes our clients are working on a specific movie role and they have to lose a few pounds for a bathing suit shot," says Jewels. "And there are others who have to gain some weight.

"Most of all, the people we work for are really concerned about consuming healthy fresh foods so they can keep their energy levels up.'

The pair shop at farmers markets, fishmongers and butchers for the food they serve their clients.

We tell them what we have that is fresh and give them some options for what we can make them that day," says Jill.

Both sisters have young boys — one is 2 1/2 years old while the other is three. "At the moment we are sharing a job because of two small children,

Pro tips

Personal chef sisters Jewels and Jill Elmore share some of their cooking tips:

- Fishy When you saute or grill fish, preheat the oven to 230 C (450 F) before you begin cooking. If the fish browns before it has cooked through, finish it for a few minutes in the oven
- Hot pot Always make sure the pan you cook with is very hot before you begin. You'll use less oil because the heat disperses it quicklv and evenly and everything will cook bet-

• Players return to their clubs Friday as training camps open around the NHL • Here's a look at five burning questions as teams start preparing for the regular season

1. CUP HANGOVER?

The Chicago Blackhawks have been the talk of the hockey world - as much for their unusual off-season as their Stanley Cup win in June. With a number of players who helped make them a champion now calling other cities home, it will be interesting to see how coach Joel Quenneville incorporates a number of new faces into his lineup. Also, after an extremely short summer, are the competitive fires still burning in Chicago?

2. GOALIE GAME

Antti Niemi has taken his talents — and Cup ring — to northern California, where he's expected to split the Sharks crease with Antero Niittymaki. Who will emerge as the go-to guy in San Jose? After a decade in Dallas, Marty Turco is now playing for Chicago. Can he rebound from a tough year? Michael Leighton started Game 6 of the Stanley Cup final for Philadelphia. Will he be in goal when the Flyers open the 2010-11 regular season?

3. READY ROOKIES

While most expect top pick Taylor Hall to play in Edmonton this season, it remains to be seen how many others from the 2010 draft class will make the jump with him. Tyler Sequin, selected second by Boston, seems like a good bet — as do the rest of the top-5 selections: Florida's Erik Gudbranson: Columbus' Rvan Johansen: and Nino Niederreiter of the New York Islanders. A second-round pick has occasionally made a surprising ascension in the past ... are there any of those out there?

4. PUT ME IN, COACH

Guy Boucher is just 39 years old and finds himself running an NHL training camp for the first time as head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning. Will his success in the QMJHL and AHL translate to the big leagues? After a number of years as an NHL assistant, John MacLean is finally the head man in New Jersey. Can he return the Devils back to their past glory? And how long will it take for a veteran coach — Ron Wilson in Toronto? - to find himself on the hot seat?

CANUCKS

The Vancouver Canucks break training camp with arguably the best chance of the six Canadian teams to put together a special season They feature a bolstered blueline with the additions of Dan Hamhuis and Keith Ballard, and didn't lose any major pieces up front. Presumably, Roberto Luongo will return with a weight lifted off his shoulders after surrendering the captain's role this week. Will it all add up to Canada's first Stanley Cup championship parade since

Today's horoscope

T Aries March 21-April 20 No matter how go-getting an Aries you may be you cannot do it all on your own and that fact will be hammered home by what happens today. ¥ Taurus April 21-May 21 As both the Sun and Mercury are transiting the most confident area of your chart you may be tempted to think you can do as you please. Indeed you can, but that does not mean you will get away with it.

II Gemini May 22-June 21 By all means have fun today but don't neglect the needs of other people. On the home front you need to communicate more with those you love.

G Cancer June 22-July 22 You seem a bit crabby at the moment, no doubt because you feel that people who should be supporting you are not doing as much as they should.

Ω Leo July 23-Aug.23 Don't get caught up in the latest craze just because your friends and family think it's the next big thing. Like most crazes it will most likely come to nothing in the long-term.

MP Virgo Aug. 24- Sept. 22 Now that Mercury, your ruling planet, is sparkling in your favour again you will see with the kind of clarity that others find scary, especially when they have something to hide.

← Libra Sept. 23-Oct. 23 Hidden fears are coming to the surface and if you don't keep a grip on vour imagination you may start believing that the world is against you.

M Scorpio Oct. 24-Nov. 22 Spend some time alone today and get your thoughts in order. There may be lots of interesting distractions around you but none of them are worth your time and effort.

→ Sagittarius

Nov. 23-Dec. 21 Even Sagittarians have moments when they wonder if they have what it takes, and you'll have at least one such moment today. The cure for doubt is action, so throw yourself into your work. The results will amaze and delight you.

り Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 20 Better times are coming. In fact they are already here, you've been missing them because you've been focused on the opportunities you wasted rather than the opportunities that are in front of you right now.

Aquarius Jan. 21-Feb. 18 Money matters are central at the moment and even if you are one of those Aquarians who care little for possessions, you must make sure you are getting what you deserve.

H Pisces Feb. 19-March 20 A little bit of kindness and understanding on your part will go a long way toward healing a rift that has been growing wider in recent weeks SALLY BROMPTON
